

formerly Cabrini Connections

to Our Friends and Supporters,

We are thrilled to announce that we have officially changed our name from Cabrini Connections to Chicago Tutoring Connection. The name Cabrini Connections has served us well for many years but the name change became a necessity. Our program was founded by former Montgomery Wards' employees that volunteered their services to tutor and mentor the youth from the former Cabrini Green housing project. As that housing project winded down, we began accepting students from all over Chicago. Furthermore, the name was confusing for both funders and parents as they assumed we only served youth from that former housing project which has never been the case.

Currently we continue to tutor and mentor underprivileged kids 7th through 12th grade at the Jesse White Community Center located at 412 West Chicago Avenue. In addition to the kids, we also tutor the Jesse White Tumbling team on Tuesdays and Thursdays. We will continue to provide all the children the proper tools necessary for them to move onward and upward as they continue to achieve their life goals.

We thank you, our funders, neighborhood partners, parents, dedicated volunteer tutors and community leaders for supporting us throughout the years and look forward to continuing our partnerships with you.

Sincerely,

Steven P. Miller
Executive Director
Chicago Tutoring Connection
