WHO WE ARE:

Since 1992, we have operated a tutoring and mentoring program in Chicago to help economically disadvantaged 7th-12th grade students succeed in school and life.

The students meet one-on-one with their adult volunteer tutor/mentors once a week during the school year. The volunteers help them with their school work and their lives.

The program is located in the Jesse White Community Center and Field House at 412 West Chicago Avenue in the River North neighborhood.

We have been recognized as the Number 1 tutor/mentor program by the City of Chicago's Department of Family and Support Services.

To continue to help impact these young lives, we need your help!

Four Ways to Support & Contribute:

1. Attend the Golf Benefit and/or Dinner

2. Donate items for Golf Benefit Silent Auction

The Auction will run from 5pm-8pm. Previous Auction items have included autographed merchandise, sporting event, concert and theater tickets, spa packages, travel packages, gift certificates, etc.

3. Purchase 50/50 Raffle Tickets

1 for $10 or 3 for $25

4. Become a Golf Benefit Sponsor

Show your company's support for tutoring and mentoring. A wide variety of sponsorships packages are available to showcase your company or organizations branding and support for Chicago Tutoring Connection. Sponsorship packages range from $300 - $2,000.

Registration for the Golf Benefit begins at 10am, tee off is at 11am, with a shotgun start, and rounds end around 4pm. Following golf, please join us for dinner, open bar, and Silent Auction.
